

Philbeck Has Perfect Game

By David Norman

Three people tied for the highest game bowled last week at Galaxy Bowling Center. In Monday's Galaxy Classic league, Donnie Philbeck rolled the highest game of 279. Then, during Thursday's Outcasts league, Shawn Barton had the same score. Finally, on Friday's TGIF league, Bobby Abrams bowled a 279 as well.

Abrams score tied the highest game of that league this half season. He also ended the night with a 772 series. This series was a new league high as well as the highest series bowled for the week from all leagues.

Pauline Burkhart rolled the highest women's game for all leagues last week with her 256 in the Outcasts league. In the same league, Rita Morgan put together the highest series for all women at Galaxy with her 607 series.
