

Canter, Jacobs Lead Last Week

By David Norman

For the first week in a couple months, there were no honor achievements or near misses last week. However, there were still many good scores rolled at Galaxy Bowling Center.

David Canter bowled the highest game of the week, shooting 279 during Thursday's Outcasts League. Kevin Jacobs put together the top three game series of 750 in the Galaxy Classic league on Monday.

Also, in the Galaxy Classic league, Narita Rose had a 243 game and 645 series to get the top women's scores from last week.

Madison County Bowling Association will be holding their local Women's City Tournament the last two weekends of February. More details will be announced over the coming weeks.
