

Combs Tops Week

By David Norman

For the second week in a row, a bowler has come just short of rolling a perfect game. During Monday's Galaxy Classic League, Lucas Combs had the front eleven strikes, but didn't carry on his final shot to finish with a 299 game. This was the top game of the abbreviated week due to the Thanksgiving holiday.

In the same league, Corbin Roberts had the best series of the week from all leagues, finishing with a 773 score.

The Madison County Bowling Association will be hosting their annual Holiday Tournament this Sunday at 2:00. This fun style, no-tap tournament is open to anyone. Participants will receive a ticket for each strike rolled, regular or no-tap. At the end of the event, tickets will be drawn, and that person will be able to choose an envelope with an unknown amount of money in it. Over $1000 in cash prizes will be given away.

Monday Galaxy Classic League:

High Games: Lucas Combs—299, Chad Bischof—279, Mike Mitchell—279, Shawn Barton—278 and Pat Harris—278.

High Series: Corbin Roberts—773, Brandon Simpson—753, Mike Mitchell—748 and Shawn Barton—745.

The game by Combs was the second near perfect game of 299 for the league this season. This score moved him into a tie for fifth on the leaderboard.
