

Pettyjohn has a big week

By David Norman

Cameron Pettyjohn achieved two honor scores this week in a single three game set. During Monday's Galaxy Classic league, he started off the night by rolling a perfect 300 game. He almost had another in the third game, but just missed to finish with a 297. When the night was done, he ended it with an 834 series.

His scores were the highest of the week for all leagues, and his series was the highest series bowled at Galaxy this season.

Haley McDowell had the highest women's game of 222 last week during the same league and finished with the top women's series for all leagues as well with 628.

Galaxy will be hosting the KY State Women's Senior Tournament on this coming weekend. Next weekend the KY State Senior Open Tournament will also be at Galaxy.

Preregistration is preferred, and entry forms for both tournaments can be found at the front desk at the bowling alley.
