

Young Duo Roll Perfect Games

By David Norman

With leagues fully back in the swing of things after the holiday hiatus, scores have been shooting upwards. Last week continued that trend with two bowlers rolling perfect games.

During Monday's Galaxy Classic league, Corbin Roberts started off the week carrying all twelve frames to bowl the first sanctioned 300 game of his young bowling career.

Later in the week on the Outcasts league, Daelyn White managed to put all ten in the pit for twelve frames as well. This was the second perfect game of his bowling career. White's game led him to rolling the highest series of the week at Galaxy with a 758 score.

Regina Barton had the highest women's game from all leagues last week at 257, while Shirley Bentley put together the top women's series of the week with 631.
