

Morgan Strikes Perfection

By David Norman

During Thursday's Outcasts league, Tyler Morgan started off the evening on a high note, stringing together all twelve strikes to roll a perfect 300 game. He continued strong to finish the night with a 782 series, claiming the top spot in that league for the year, and among all leagues this week.

Pam Bennett had the highest women's scores for the week at Galaxy, bowling a 222 game and 560 series during Monday morning's Galaxy Seniors league.

The KY State Open wrapped up the three-week competition this past weekend. Overall, the turn out was excellent, filling the house during several of the available sessions. Local cashers will be listed in this column once all the scores have been finalized.

In upcoming local events, the Madison County Bowling Association will be hosting their Annual Holiday Tournament on December 8th at 2:00. This no-tap tournament will be giving out twice as many cash prizes as last year, and is open to everyone. More details about this tournament will be in next week's column.

Monday Galaxy Classic League:

High Games: Kenny Kysar—290, Corbin Roberts—279, Mike Mitchell—279 and Chad Bischof—268.

High Series: Mike Mitchell—757, Corbin Roberts—752, Donnie Philbeck—721 and Kenny Kysar—718.

Kysar's game moved him to seventh on the season leaderboard.
